Priority GS-12 through GS-14 (or equivalent). GS-11 and GS-15 by exception (Grade-waiver requests may be granted). Army officers, major or lieutenant colonel rank, chief warrant officers, sergeants major, or command sergeants major interested in attending should contact your career branch assignment officer.

Length of Program 12 weeks – SBLM Resident Program (2 week pre-course work required)

12 months – SBLM Nonresident Program (NR)

Location Resident: Army Management Staff College (AMSC), Ft. Belvoir, VA.

Web site at http://www.amsc.belvoir.armv.mil.

Nonresident: http://cpol.army.mil/library/train/catalog/ch01sblm.html

Purpose First, to prepare a select group of Army civilian and military leaders for advancement to key leadership positions in the sustaining base. Second, to enhance the cohesiveness of the Army by promoting the bond between civilian and military leaders. Third, to be a sustaining base resource.

For additional assistance, contact the AMSC Registrar at 703.805.4756/57 or DSN

655.4756/57.

Selection & Notification Nominations are evaluated competitively by the DA Secretariat Board. Selections are based on the board's assessment of each candidate's potential to assume key leadership positions in the combat support/combat service support arena. DAPE-CP-CPA releases notification of selections electronically through command channels. Employees notified of primary or alternate selection status should notify the AMSC Registrar's Office of location or phone number changes at 703.805.4756/57 or DSN 655.4756/57 or email to: registrar@amsc.belvoir.army.mil.

Funding Army civilians are centrally funded. Corps of Engineers civil works employees, civilians paid by Army Reserve or National Guard funds, non-Department of the Army employees, and military members are funded through their own organizations. Nonappropriated fund employees are funded by Headquarters, Army Community and Family Support Center.
